

A Dictionary of Architecture and Landscape Architecture 2/e

Professor James Stevens Curl

SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY

The greatest part of a writer's time is spent in reading, in order to write: a man will turn over half a library to make one book.

JAMES BOSWELL (1740-95): Life of Samuel Johnson (1791), ii (6 April 1775).

This provides references for individual entries, but has no pretensions to be comprehensive: it should be regarded as offering the minimum information for further reading, no more. Certain abbreviations have been adopted as follows:
